WANT RAILWAYS NATIONALIZED.

Is of English Commercial Travelers is Aroused over Excess-Baggage Charges.

LONDON, June 19.—England's commercial travelers have inaugurated a campaign for the nationalization of the railways of Great Britain. The companies' recent decision to charge for excess baggage has excited the antagonism of the commercial men's fraternity, and the annual conference of travelers' organizations which has just adjourned at Norwich has resolved to agitate for relief from what are denominated the extortionate charges of the railways. The travelers advocate government ownership and declare that they propose to carry their grievance into the politics of the kingdom.

Another cause of complaint on the part of the commercial travelers is the freight charges of the railways, which, they declare, lack little of being prohibitive. The result is a heavy falling off in sales.

"This excess-baggage edict," said Stafford Northcote, head of a London wholesale dry goods establishment, "works immense hardship to commercial men. The travelers are the creators of the roads' chief source of profit and they can well afford to be generous. But the tremendous corporate wealth of the railways has made them arrogant, and traveling men, as well as the public at large, are left at their mercy."

The other side of the argument is presented by William Hopson Pepper Corney, secretary of the Great Eastern Railway, who says that British commercial travelers are "Oliver Twists" so far as concessions are concerned.
"Owing to increased operating expenses," he said, "the roads are compelled to avail themselves of every possible source of revenue. The decision to charge for excess baggage is no new rule. In the case of the commercial travelers it amounts simply to enforcing a rule, violations of which hitherto have been winked at. The British railways have no fear of nationalization.
The theory is altogether ethereal." Kennie B. Murray, secretary of the London Chamber of Commerce, informs your correspondent that British trade interests believe that relief from railway extortions will come through the railways pooling their issues and coming under the management of a central body, rather than through government ownership. "Taking over the system," he said, "would involve a sum larger than the national debt; but, apart from that consideration, the influence of the railways in Parliament is so powerful that they could throttle any attempt at legislation that aimed to destroy their monopoly."

Turned Her Hair White.

New York, June 9.—Mrs. J. Schrauth of Poughkeepsie, who sailed on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse for Germany three weeks ago, in a letter to a relative says the anxiety and excitement of the voyage caused her hair to turn white.

Mrs. Schrauth was accompanied on the voyage by her husband. Head winds and heavy sea were encountered and Mrs. Schrauth was among the first of the passengers to be overcome.

It is said the voyage was the roughest and the weather the most trying ever encountered by the vessel, which plowed through seas that sometimes washed the decks.

Cocaine's Hold on Negroes.

Memphis Tenn., June 9.—The results of a cocaine investigation in Memphis are remarkable, showing the hold the drug has on negroes. Careful inquiry by sanitary officers and members of the board of Health shows that 80 per cent of all the adult negroes of Memphis are more or less addicted to a use of the drug. Some negroes use it as a mild stimulant, but many for its intoxicating effect. Nine out of ten negroes arrested are cocaine users. Laborers and steamboat roustabouts are greatly given to the drug. In the negro district the drug is sold in all groceries as well as at drug stores.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Territory.

Good Medicine for Children.

If you have a baby in the house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea so common to small children. O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind., who has an eleven-months-old child, says: "Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach.
His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water, and he got better at once." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Ben-
